1st day:

Arrival

You will be welcome by us at Tocumen International Airport, nearby Panama City, and transferred to your Hotel.

Lodging Hotel Miramar***** – dinner

2nd day:

Panama City

You will take a chopper ride that will last around 30 minutes. The tour will take you across the city, going north above the rainforest up to the Gamboa Rainforest Resort, and coming back along the Panama Canal seeing also Miraflores Locks. We will use several 3-5 passenger helicopters to handle a group of up to 20 persons going at the same time.

After a delicious lunch you will continue exploring the historical sites of the city by bus and foot.

In the evening you will have your dinner served on a yate cruising Panama City Bay and enjoying its lighted skyline.

Lodging Hotel Miramar***** – breakfast, lunch, dinner

3rd day:

The Chagres Challenge, Jungle Expedition

An early start at 5 am when you will be picked up and taken in an all-terrain vehicle to the remote village of San Cristobal, which is past the mountains of Cerro Azul, northeast of Panama City. After enjoying a typical Panamanian breakfast, you will hike for about 2 hours on a trail within Chagres National Park up to Rio Piedras, a Chagres River tributary, where you will get into rafts to float downstream (Class II-III rapids) into the untouched jungles of the Chagres River. About noon you will have lunch on the riverbanks. Then, you will continue your trip further downstream passing an impressive granite canyon with some white water rapid action, and ending by Madden Lake. There you are expected by a "piragua" (native wooden canoe equipped with outboard motor) that will take you, passing along Embera Natives villages in the river banks, to the nearest road where a driver will be expecting to bring you back to civilization, and to your hotel in Panama City.

Lodging Hotel Miramar***** – breakfast, lunch, dinner

4th day:

San Blas

This morning you will depart for the extraordinary San Blas Archipelago, a Kuna Native Reservation. The Kunas are well known by their handcraft and unique culture.

You will depart at 7 a.m. to get your airplane at 8.30 a.m. After a short flight you will be ready for your sailing trip at 9.30 a.m. On a small island you will stop to enjoy the beautiful white sanded tropical beach, to snorkel and swim or play volleyball. A gourmet lunch and rum punch will be served. You will have a chance to get to know the Kuna Indians living in this area while they show you their famous handmade Molas. Then, you will depart for your return sailing trip and your flight back to Panama City where you will arrive around 6 p.m.

Lodging Hotel Miramar***** – breakfast, lunch, dinner

5th day:

Chiriqui, “Los Quetzales Trail”

You will board a 7 a.m. flight to David City, toward the west, close to Costa Rica. From David, you will be transferred to mountain town of Cerro Punta, where you will hike “Los Quetzales” trail toward Boquete. With luck you will see the magnificent Quetzal, a bird only found in cloud forests of Central America. This hike will last 5 – 6 hours and end in Boquete where a driver is waiting to take you to your hotel.

Lodging Hotel Bambito Resort***** – breakfast, lunch, dinner

6th day:

Chiriqui Viejo River Rafting

After an early breakfast, you will head toward the border with Costa Rica, at Paso Canoas. Close by, you will put in on a breathtaking, adrenaline rush, rafting tour on the Chiriqui Viejo River with most rapids being Class III-IV. The river passes through a canyon and spectacular waterfalls characterize it. Depending on the water level and section used it you will be rafting about 3-4 hours. At 5 p.m. we will arrive to David Airport to take your flight back to Panama City.
